

Holcim turns 100

Commemoration of Arts: Visitors look at photographs displayed at the ACC office (Cement House) at Churchgate in Mumbai. ACC is part of the worldwide Holcim which turns 100 this year. To commemorate its centennial, the company commissioned a unique artistic exposition. Leading international portrait photographer Marco Grob and the reputed industrial photographers team were invited to visit a worldwide selection of Holcim's group companies to capture images of the company's workers and workplaces. The result is a tribute to 80,000 Holcim group employees in 70 countries offered simultaneously as a unique corporate exhibition displayed in the world's leading cities. ACC has been chosen for this initiative. Gagal and Wadi plants and their people are featured in the series to represent Holcim in India. — Paul Noronha
